TIGER

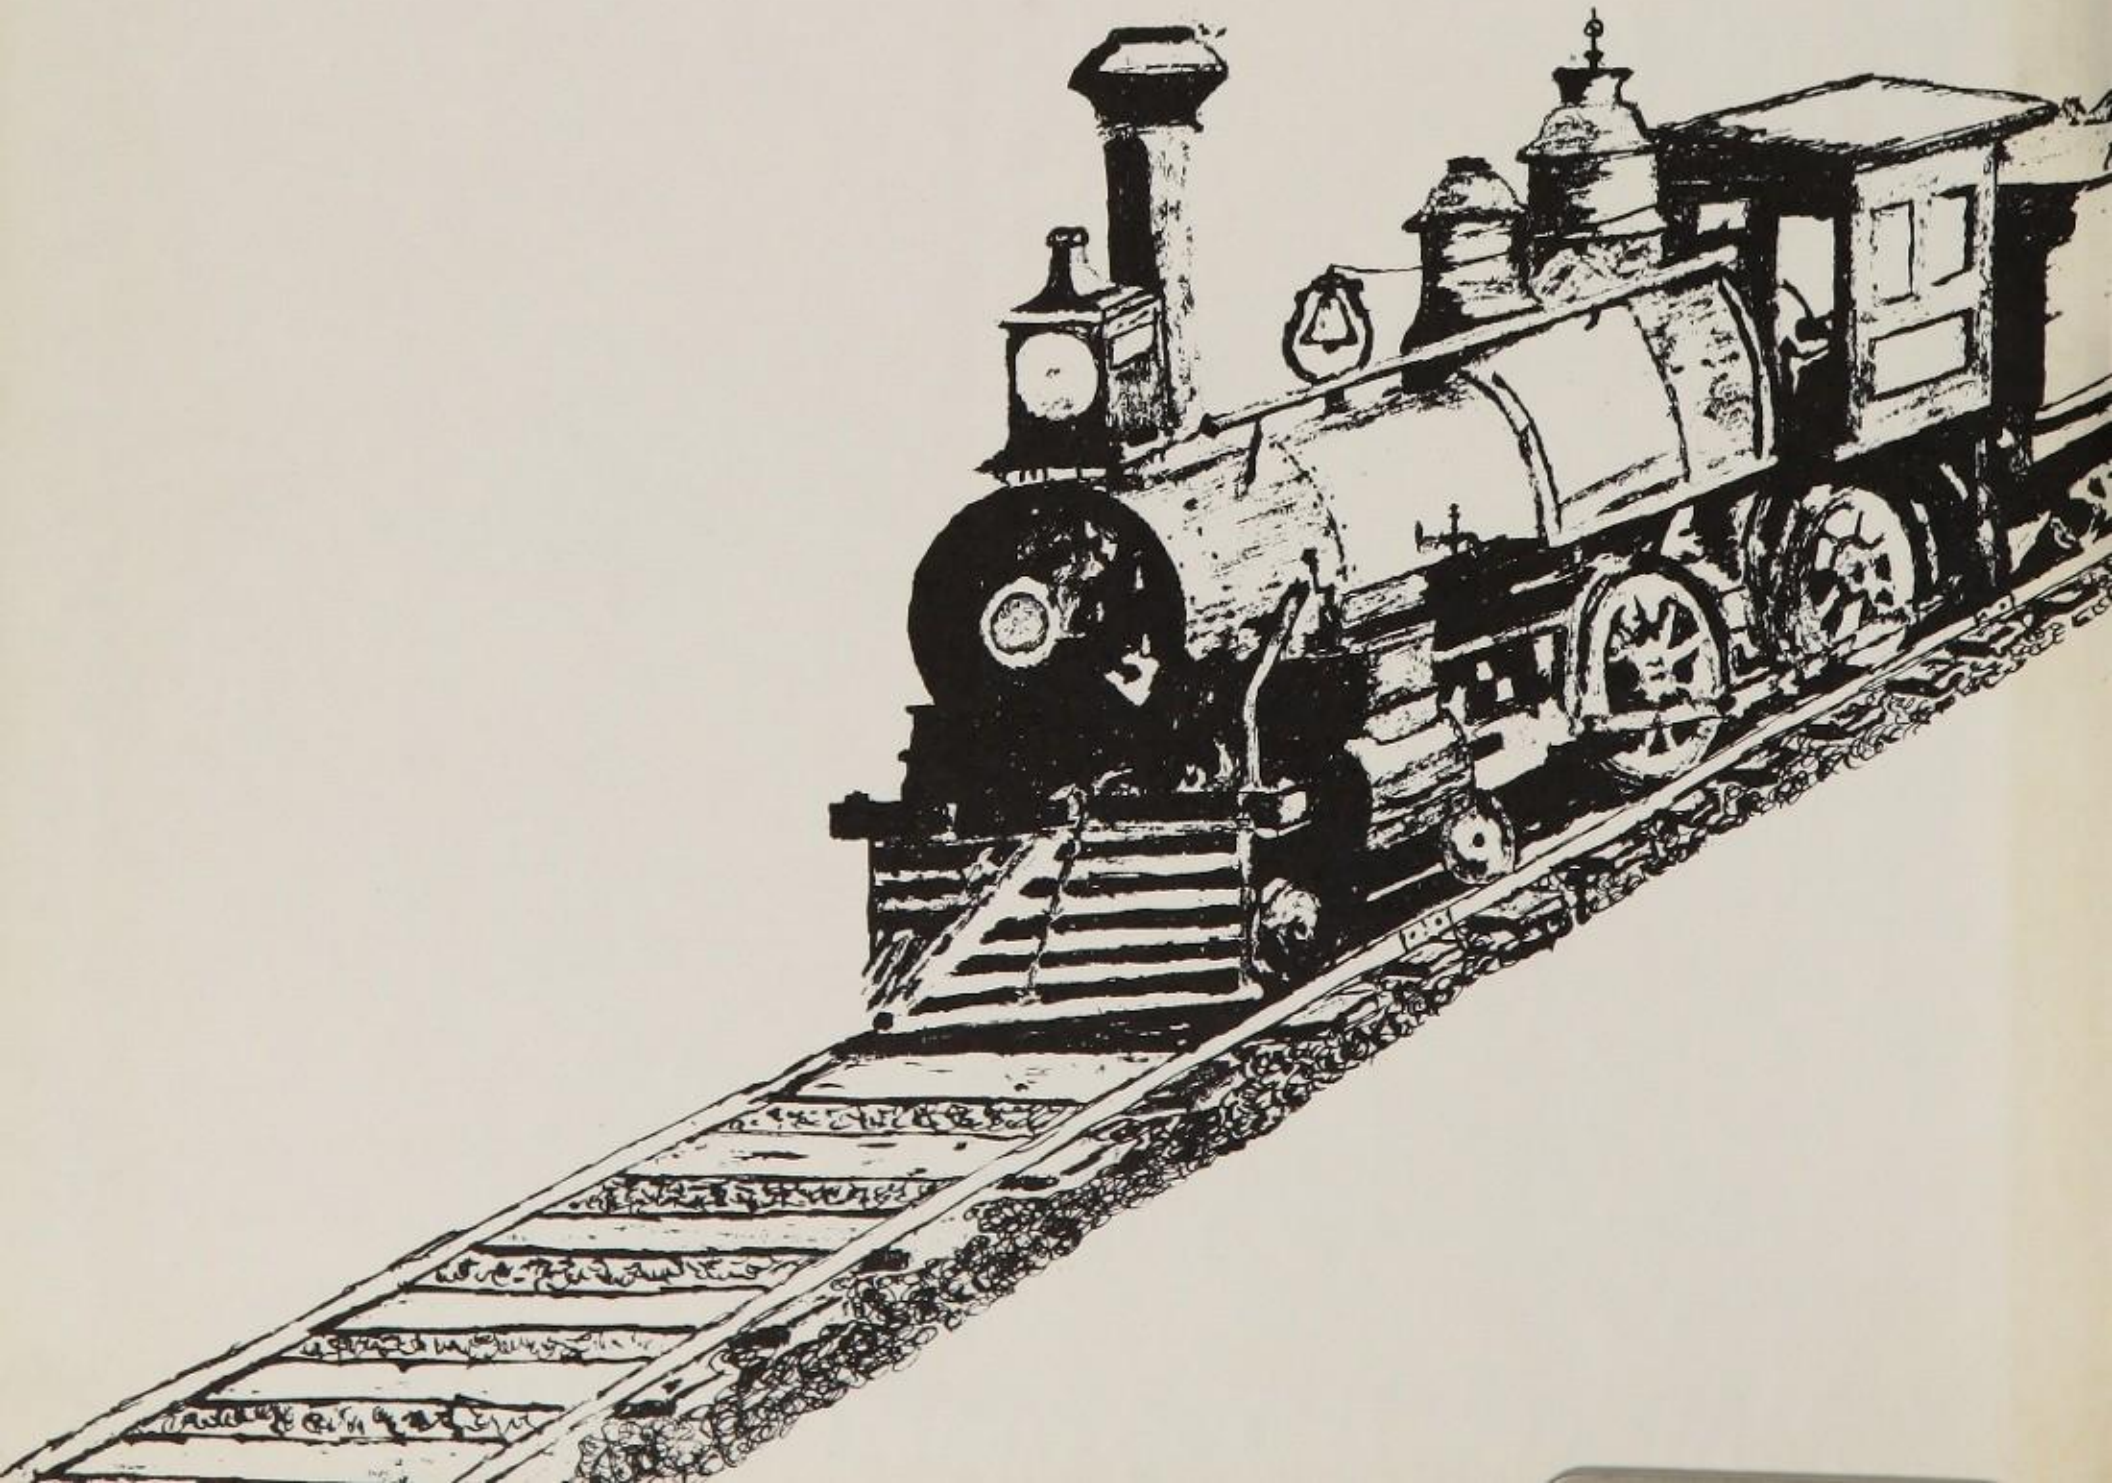
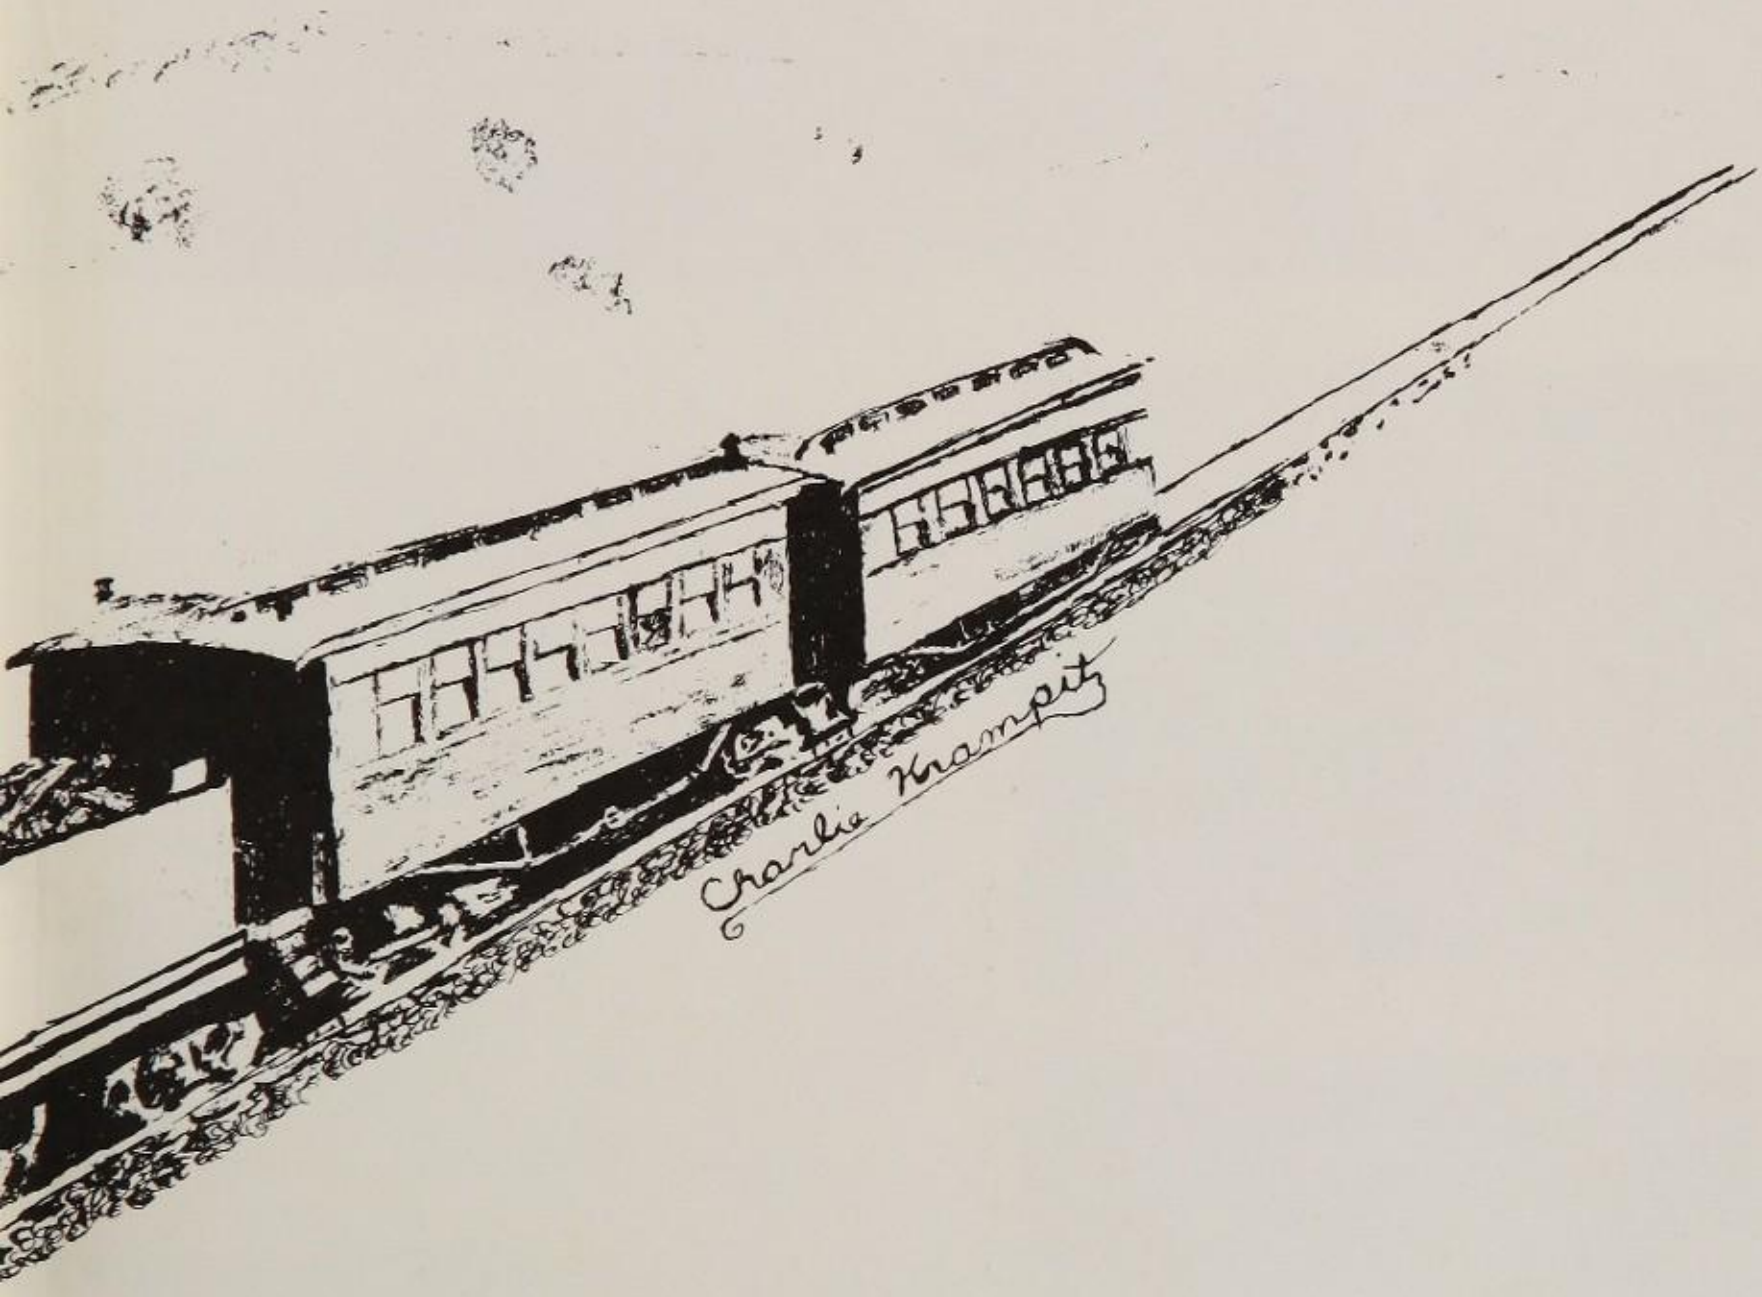
Susan Lilly





as we travel,
we remember the words, the hours . . .

memories . . .
thoughts or mental possessions
we will always remember, bringing back times that no one else can ever understand, except those who shared them.

these cherished moments cannot be taken away; their value will increase as years go by.

soon, friends will travel,
seeking success and answers to long-sought dreams . . .
and all that will be left
are memories . . .
